

*Project Identify and Recognize Honoring
Home Economics, Family & Consumer Sciences, and Dietetic Professionals with Military Service*

GOAL: To identify and recognize professionals with an undergraduate or graduate degree in home economics, family & consumer sciences, dietetics, or related area of study with service in the US Military: Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corp, or Coast Guard

PURPOSE: To honor these professionals for their military service and to document their military accomplishments for the history of the profession by the Centennial year 2009 of the American Association of Family & consumer Sciences

REGISTER: Servicewomen must register by completing a confidential personal data form. For the deceased, a family member or colleague may complete the form. Mail or fax the completed form and any supplemental materials to the Project Director,

*Janett Gibbs, 135 Meadowview Road, Athens, GA 30606
Phone/Fax (706) 546 6372 E-mail: jangibbs@ix.netcom.com
There is no fee to register.*

SPONSORS: *American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences
International Federation for Home Economics-United States
Membership in either professional association is not a requisite for this recognition.*

RECOGNITION: All registered servicewomen receive a Certificate of Appreciation, Project Recognition Brooch and an invitation to the Recognition Ceremony.

First Recognition Ceremony	June 27, 2003
Women in Military Service for America Memorial, Washington, DC
Second Recognition Ceremony	June 25, 2004
Veterans Museum and Memorial Center,	San Diego, CA
Third Recognition Ceremony, Charlotte, NC	June 21, 2006

There is no cost to the honoree to receive the Certificate and Brooch Attendance at the ceremony is not required to receive this honor.

JOURNAL ARTICLE: Wood, R.T. and Gibbs, J.A. (April, 2004)
"FCS Professionals in Service to the Nation"
Journal of Family & Consumer Sciences, Vol. 96, No. 2. 60-61